

Matt Sundeen
Program Principal, Transportation
National Conference of State Legislatures

Matt Sundeen is an attorney and program principal in the transportation program of the National Conference of State Legislatures. NCSL is a bi-partisan organization headquartered in Denver, Colorado, that supports and represents the legislatures in the 50 states, the District of Columbia and the U.S. territories. At NCSL, Matt tracks a variety of transportation issues including distracted driving. Matt has authored numerous articles and reports on distracted driving and has been widely quoted on the subject. Matt received his law degree from the University of Denver and a BA in international studies from Michigan State University.